THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Friday Evening, July 6, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

First of July.

Quite a number of our subscribers have paid up to the 1st. of July. We hope all will renew promptly by that time. Look out for the cross mark.

After to-day the Sentinel will be discontinued to those subscribers, out of town, who have not paid up according to terms, or notified us of their wishes. We have continued it to them several days over time, in order to give them an early opportunity of reading Gov. Vance's address.

Fourth of July.

The day was celebrated in this City by the Military and the Freedmen,—an immense concourse of the latter being out upon the occasion. They were addressed, we learn, by B. F. Moore, Esq., We are glad to say that everything passed off quietly,—no disorder occurring to mar the observances.

Wherever the Declaration of Independence was read throughout the States of the North, on Wednesday, it is be hoped that the listening people were fired with a virtuous indignation at the recollection of the grievances inflicted upon the colonies by GEORGE the Third,—the inhuman monster. For instance:

"He has refused to pass laws for the accommodation of large districts of the people, unless those people would relinquish the right of REPRESENTATION—a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only."

"He has affected to render the military independent of, and superior to, the civil power."

"He has kept among us, in time of peace, standing armies."

"He has combined to subject us to a jurisdiction" (they had no Freedmen's Bureau, however, in those days,) "foreign to our Constitution and unacknowledged by our laws."

"He has created a multitude of new offices and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance."

"He has quartered large bodies of armed troops among us,—protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders, &c."

"He has imposed taxes on us without our consent."

The Amended Constitution.

In all free governments, the rights and powers of the rulers can only be properly defined and limited, and the rights of the governed properly prescribed and protected, by written compacts or constitutions. These have been universally regarded as the organic law of the land, incapable of hasty or inconsiderate change, by the ordinary apparatus of legislation, which may be swayed by passion or prejudice. Hence, the public sense in all free governments, regarding the organic law as essential to the existence of the State or nation, views with extreme sensitiveness and jealousy every attempt to change or modify it. When the people, therefore, become indifferent to proposed changes in the organic law, it argues a degree of insensibility to danger or a state of demoralization, bordering upon recklessness and ruin. Such, we hope, is not the condition of the people of this State, at the present time.

Important modifications of the Constitution of this State have been desirable for years; changes also have been necessary by the remarkable events in the history of our people, which have recently transpired, and a very earnest desire has been long felt among our whole people, for such an embodiment and codification of the original Constitution of the State, with all subsequent amendments of that instrument, as would present a connected, clear and systematic resume of the organic law of the State.

As we have heretofore stated, this work has been done, and we think admirably, by the labors of the committee, and the Convention. It will be found to be carefully condensed and arranged under appropriate headings, and made easily comprehended by the avoidance of technicalities, which serve to embarrass the unlearned. We have called it the new Constitution. In the sense of comprehensiveness it is new, though it embodies the old, bating such changes as were deemed necessary.

Whatever objections may exist in the minds of the people as to the agency and powers of the Convention, or whatever prejudices may have been excited by the course of the body in regard to legislation, or to the objectionable views of some members of the body, we doubt the propriety or the prudence of making up a judgment adverse to the instrument itself from any extraneous cause. Nor should it be hastily rejected because of some imperfection or on account of one or more objectionable features.—All human efforts must be imperfect, and the hazard of frequent attempts to change the organic law ought to admonish us, not to risk the loss of what may be generally acceptable, for the sake of gaining one or two desirable changes, lest we lose more than we gain. We are, therefore, free to say, that while there are objections to us in the new or amended Constitution, we would prefer living under it for the next fifty years, rather than submit it again to a Convention claiming plenary and unrestricted powers.

We therefore urge all the people of the State, carefully to read and digest the Constitution recently adopted by the Convention and now being scattered through the State, before making up a settled judgment; and if they find it to be acceptable generally, as we think they will, let them beware of hastily rejecting it, because of a few objectionable features. In the rapid whirl of human events, it is more than probable, that in a few years, as great will be the progress of the spirit of change, and so radical, opportunities for modifying it will not be rare, however dubious. At another time, we shall notice the important changes made in the instrument.

A Hopeful View.

It is the part of folly, and of moral cowardice as well, to succumb to the pressure of surrounding misfortunes. However oppressive in the present, and however portentous as to the future, the brave and sanguine will combat the one and go forth manfully to encounter the other. The existing condition of the South, and the further evils with which it is threatened, under the sway of Radical fanaticism and malignity, are certainly sufficient, if ever any thing was in the annals of nations, to crush the spirit and exhaust the hopes of a people. But if we will survey the field calmly and intelligently, in the light of the past, it will not be difficult to pluck some consolation even out of the very circumstances that now so painfully disturb us and excite our worst apprehensions.

The lessons of history, if they teach anything, plainly demonstrate that re-action is the logical consequence of excess. The violent and vindictive persecutions of the early Christians gave our holy religion an impetus that, under different circumstances, it might have been ages in acquiring. The demoniacal fury of the French Revolution, when the foundations of government were upheaved, the worship of God expelled and Reason enshrined as Deity, was succeeded by a long period of order and quiet, and a reign of morals and devotionalism most rare for such a country and such a people. The authors of the guillotine themselves perished beneath its blade, and Reason, hurled from its false throne, resumed its sway in the minds and hearts of men. And all excesses, whether in a right or wrong direction, are followed by counter-action. The puritanical fervor and austere habits of the days of Cromwell were succeeded by unbridled license, and a corrupt and voluptuous moral abandonment, during the reign of the second Charles.

These facts, we say, convey an impressive moral, and teach, for us, the encouraging lesson, that the passions of men, in whatsoever form excited, are fleeting, and subside with a rapidity proportioned to their excess. If such has been the case in the past, even in the remotest ages of antiquity, it is but reasonable to suppose that, in this day of vaunted progress, enlightenment and civilization, the same result will be the more speedily and effectually accomplished. There is no reason to suppose that the American people, in this particular, are an exceptional race. Indeed, there is every reason for the hope and the belief, in our existing situation, that this popular tendency, when operated upon and assisted by the interests of trade and the facilities of commerce and inter-communication, will be hastened to its consummation. It is, therefore, our confident anticipation,—however inauspicious the present indications may be,—that the day is not remote when the angry tide apparently threatening to engulf the people and the States of the South will flow into other and better channels. Nay, it will flow backwards, and in turn will overwhelm the bad, desperate and unscrupulous men who would have let loose its turbulent waves upon us. When the sober-second thought,—the calm, after the storm of passion which has swept across the skies,—shall have taken possession of the masses of the people, there will come a day of regret for the madness which has ruled the hour, and an indignant reckoning with its fomenters and instigators. In this speculation consists our "hopeful view" of the situation.

Of history we have no fears. The time for writing it, or making it up, has not arrived.—The prejudices and animosities growing out of the late conflict have not sufficiently subsided. When, however, the calm and dispassionate judgment shall have been formed, as it will be, surely and certainly, the South will have no reason to blush for the record. Its endurance, valor and heroism,—its conduct of the war, so far as lay in its contracted ability, according to civilized usage,—the names and the fame of its great leaders and of its citizen-soldiery,—will illuminate the pages of the historian, while its whole bearing in the unequal contest will excite the admiration of posterity. No, we have no fears of history. We are content to leave in its hands everything connected with the great war. Burying all passion ourselves, we address us to the present, and hope that we have succeeded in impressing our readers with some little of the encouragement which we are disposed to indulge.

Address of Members of Congress.

We give to-day the address of the conservative Democratic Senators and members of Congress to the people of the United States. Its fervid patriotism all will admire, and we hope that its spirit will be fully imbibed by the entire mass of conservative men, whether they be Democrat, Republican or Whig.

By some strange obtuseness the Newbern Times classes us with the New York World as opposed to the proposed Convention in Philadelphia on the 14th. of August next. We have at no time expressed an opinion adverse to that Convention, but on the contrary have warmly advocated it from the beginning. We have insisted that all conservatives of every party should lay aside for the present their peculiar party predilections, for the sake of harmony among the friends of President Johnson. We specially commended the course of those Democrats who were ready to do so, for the highly patriotic reason, that the country was in danger, and it was important that all should merge or ignore party for the present, to save the country from the rule and ruin of Radicalism.

We beg that the people of North Carolina will not delay action upon this subject. Let every district in the State send two delegates, one for each of the old parties, prudent men, who would act wisely in that Convention. The delegates elected from the several districts could name four gentlemen to represent the State at large. The Convention meets in Philadelphia on Tuesday, the 14th. day of Aug. next. Virginia and other States are moving. Let not the Old North State be behind.

Laying aside all old party affiliations, till we know where we stand, let us unite upon such men as truly represent the feelings and sentiments of the masses of our people.—Goldsboro News.

The above expresses precisely the views we entertain at this crisis. The Republic is in danger. The country is called upon to change radically the Constitution of the United States, from a government of the people of the several Federal States, to that of a consolidated power, under the rule of a fanatical and frenzied majority. It behooves every man who loves the country of Washington, and the government framed by our fathers, to resist this movement to the utmost. We must strive for the Constitution as it is, and the Union, as it was. We must oppose all further amendments to the Constitution.

We are glad that our excellent cotemporary, the Goldsboro' News, has been resumed at a period when its services, in aid of the right, are so much needed. We hope the friends of the country, the Union and the Constitution, will rally to its support, and the support of the conservative press of the State generally.

AMENDED CONSTITUTION.—In speaking of the Convention committee on the Constitution, we have only alluded to Messrs. B. F. Moore and Wm. Eaton, jr., as members of it. We are informed that the Committee consisted of Messrs. Moore, Eaton, McCorkle, Thompson and T. R. Caldwell. The omission must be charged wholly to the infirmity of our memory, and to the fact that we had heard Messrs. Moore and Eaton specially spoken of as the authors.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.—The Proclamation of Gov. Worth, in pursuance of the ordinance of the Convention, directing an election to be held for the ratification or rejection of the amended Constitution, on the first Thursday in August, will be found in another column.

The National Convention.

The Charlotte Times endorses the proposed National Convention at Philadelphia, and makes the following good suggestion:

"Col. William Johnson, who is a prudent as well as firm man, of known conservative and national views, will be in Philadelphia about that time, and we respectfully present his name as one of the delegates from the State at large. If, however, no move embracing the State is made with a view of sending delegates, then let Col. Johnson act for this district."

Colonel Scott, commandant of South Carolina, has issued stringent orders in consequence of the increase of theft, vagrancy and drunkenness among the freedmen, in which he says the total disregard of the freedmen for their contracts must result in destitution and starvation unless the evil is checked. Therefore, he orders that men or women who neglect labor be arrested and made to work on the public roads, and that those convicted of non-capital crimes be imprisoned and compelled to labor as convicts on the islands from sunrise to sunset.

Address of the Democracy in Congress to the People of the United States.

The following address will be promulgated to-morrow:

To the People of the United States:

Dangers threaten the Constitution! The citadel of our liberties is directly assailed! The future is dark unless the people will come to the rescue. In this hour of our peril National Union should be the watchword of every true man. As essential to National Union, we must maintain unimpaired the rights, the dignity, and the equality of the States, including the right of representation in Congress, and the exclusive right of each State to control its own domestic concerns, subject only to the Constitution of the United States. After an uniform construction of the Constitution for more than half a century, the assumption of new and arbitrary powers in the Federal Government is subversive of our system, and destructive of liberty.

A free interchange of opinion and kind feeling between the citizens of all the States is necessary to the perpetuity of the Union. At present eleven States are excluded from the national councils. For seven long months the present Congress has persistently denied any right of representation to the people of these States. Laws, affecting their highest and dearest interests, have been passed without their consent, and in disregard of the fundamental principles of free government. This denial of representation has been made to all the members from a State, although the State, in the language of the President, presents itself not only in an attitude of loyalty and harmony, but in the persons of Representatives whose loyalty cannot be questioned under any existing constitutional or legal test. The Representatives of nearly one-third of the States have not been consulted with reference to the great questions of the day. There has been no nationality surrounding the present Congress. There has been no intercourse between the representatives of the two sections, producing mutual confidence and respect. In the language of the distinguished Lieutenant-General: "It is to be regretted that at this time there cannot be a greater commingling between the citizens of the two sections, and particularly of those entrusted with the law-making power." This state of things should be removed at once and forever. Therefore, to preserve the national union, to vindicate the sufficiency of our admirable Constitution, to guard the States from covert attempts to deprive them of their true position in the Union, and to bring together those who are unnaturally severed, and for these great national purposes only, we cordially approve the call for a National Union Convention to be held at the City of Philadelphia, on the second Tuesday, fourteenth of August next, and indorse the principles therein set forth.

We, therefore, respectfully but earnestly urge upon our fellow citizens in each State, in the United States, in the interest of union and in a spirit of harmony, and with direct reference to the principles contained in said call, to act promptly in the selection of wise, moderate and conservative men to represent the said Convention, to the end that all the States shall at once be restored to their practical relations to the Union, the Constitution be maintained, and peace bless the whole country.

WASHINGTON, July 4, 1866.

PROCLAMATION
TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

In obedience to an Ordinance of the State Convention, ratified the 25th. day of June, 1866, entitled "An Ordinance submitting to the qualified voters of the State the ratification or rejection of the Constitution adopted by the Convention," I, JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of North Carolina, hereby give notice that on THURSDAY, the SECOND day of AUGUST next, polls will be opened by the Sheriffs of the respective Counties, and kept open for three successive days, at the several election precincts in each and every County in the State, under the same rules and regulations as now exist for the election of members of the General Assembly; at which election all persons qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, may vote for or against the ratification of the same; those who wish a ratification of the Constitution voting, with a written or printed ticket, "RATIFICATION,"—those, of a contrary opinion, voting, with a written or printed ticket, "REJECTION." Sheriffs will observe the provisions of the Ordinance as to the duties thereby imposed.

L. S. In witness whereof His Excellency, JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of said State, has hereto set his hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at the City of Raleigh, this the 1st. day of July, A. D. 1866.

JONATHAN WORTH.

By the Governor:
WM. H. BAGLEY,
Private Secretary.

July 6—td.

Every newspaper in the State will insert the above Proclamation till the day of election, and forward bill (with copy of proclamation, as published, attached,) for payment.

President Johnson, in his late Message to Congress objecting to the proposed radical amendment to the Constitution, uses this significant language:

"That of the thirty-six States which constitute the Union, eleven are excluded from representation in either House of Congress, although, with the single exception of Texas, they have been entirely restored to all their functions as States in conformity with the organic law of the land."

This is plain language; and if the States have been entirely restored to all the functions as States, why is it that military commanders and Bureau officers are permitted to interfere with the civil affairs of a State—arraigning and trying citizens and imposing penalties? According to the President's own declaration they have no right to arraign and try citizens, and we advise all who are thus dealt with to appeal to the President, and lay the matter before him. He will give it attention.—Charlotte Democrat.

Bishop Wilmer accepts the office of Bishop of Louisiana, and the majority of the dioceses endorse his election. He will soon be consecrated by Bishop Hopkins.

Freights,	$119,520.81
Passengers,	$130,773.40
Mail,	$3,300.00

T. B. Venable, by request, made a statement in relation to the bonds of the Roanoke Valley Railroad, held by Company's sinking fund, to be exchanged for a like amount of bonds of the Richmond & Danville Railroad Co., with individual security.

Gen. Cox, President of the Chatham Coalfields Road, spoke of the present and future prospects of that important enterprise.

Several important resolutions were offered and adopted by the meeting.

By B. F. Moore, Esq.:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to confer with a committee of the City of Raleigh, and a committee of the North Carolina Railroad Company, and a committee of the other stockholders in the Chatham Railroad Company, in regard to the value of the stock of the several stockholders in said Company, and report to the next meeting of stockholders; and on the propriety of a sale of the interest of the said stockholders in said road, and an equitable division of the proceeds among the stockholders. Also to present the matter growing out of the subscription, to the next session of the General Assembly, for such relief as the General Assembly may deem it proper to grant.

Resolved, further, That the directors of this Company shall have full power to ratify any agreement which may be made with the other stockholders or any competent authority by them appointed.

The following gentlemen were appointed a committee under the foregoing resolution:—Gov. Bragg, K. P. Battle and W. J. Hawkins, Esqs.

By Dr. E. A. Crudup:

Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Company are hereby authorized to make such disposition of Company's $80,000 of reserved capital stock, as in their judgment may be to the interest of the Company, either by sale, or exchange of same in the purchase of supplies and materials, or payment of debts of the Company, or otherwise.

By Dr. Crudup:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to revise the by-laws and regulations of the Company, and report to the next meeting of Stockholders.

The Chair appointed on this committee Dr. E. A. Crudup, T. B. Venable, Geo. Little and Kemp P. Battle.

The Stockholders proceeded to select four directors; resulting in the election of Geo. W. Mordecai, Dr. Wm. J. Hawkins, S. S. Royster and J. B. Batchelor. The State had previously appointed Col. Geo. Little, Robert W. Lassiter and J. B. Littlejohn.

The following gentlemen were elected members of the Committee of Finance and Inspection:

T. B. Venable, Robert W. Haywood and Thos. White.

On motion of K. P. Battle, it was ordered that a list of the Stockholders be published, with the annual report and statements.

The thanks of the meeting being tendered to the Chairman and Secretaries, on motion of Gen. Cox, the meeting adjourned.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors of the road, Dr. William J. Hawkins was elected President. Thus the entire administration of the road has been returned to what it was before Provisional times.

NEW POST-OFFICE.—The City Postmaster has moved into his new quarters at the corner of Fayetteville and Martin streets. The edifice is excellently adapted to its purpose, and has been arranged in neat and tasteful style. Mr. Miller deserves credit for his energy in having the new office fitted up.

INSTITUTE FOR THE DEAF, DUMB AND THE BLIND.—The pupils of this State Institution are at present enjoying their vacation. The Deaf Mute Casket,—a neat little monthly periodical published at the Institution,—says that the past session has been a very pleasant one to all connected with it, and expresses the hope that all will spend a pleasant vacation and return promptly at the commencement of the next session.

WALTER DUNN, Jr., proposes to revive the American Advocate at Kinston, about the 1st. of August.

Lecture on "Satan."

DANVILLE, June 30., 1866.

EDITORS OF SENTINEL:—My attention was called, by a friend, to an editorial notice in your paper of the 28th. inst., of my Lecture on "Satan," which closes with an invitation to lecture in your city.

I would indeed be gratified if, in the estimation of the audiences I may gather around me in the good "Old North State,"—I have not yet lost my old love for her—the high place you concede to me as a Lecturer may be worthily won.

Two years ago, there was a battle at Staunton Bridge, that made two worthy wives in our town widows. They had no earthly support left them. The citizens wished to place them in comparative comfort, and I, myself wrestling with this grim, gaunt, fiend, poverty, having no money to give, prepared this lecture from thoughts running through a range of twenty years, and delivered it for their benefit. I was surprised at the very general interest manifested in the theory presented, and was afterwards frequently urged to repeat it, and a few weeks ago, by special request, as the desire would not die out, presented it again with interest (so they said,) to the hearers. I determined to offer it to other communities, thinking it would be gratifying to them and no loss to me.

In going out with such intent I claim for myself so much and no more, that I can give in this Lecture, to any one who appreciates such things, fifty cents worth of intellectual enjoyment and throw in without charge fifty cents worth more of suggestive thought.

There are some, in every place, who would have no interest in such a work. There is nothing "funny" in it. I keep no monkey for show. I am aware of the fact, as you state it, that such entertainments are at a discount, but such is all I have. I cannot "fiddle while Rome is burning," nor do I think that the best way to elevate us as a people, or to do honor to ourselves in the circumstances that surround us.

With this free statement, if you think it will pay me to come, I will with great pleasure lecture in Raleigh. Very respectfully,

S. S. BRYANT.

[We hope to be able positively to announce, in a few days, that Mr. Bryant will deliver his Lecture in this City. The subject, the genius of the Lecturer, and the commendable object of its delivery, would doubtless secure him a large audience.]

COUPONS RECOVERED.—It will be remembered that, some weeks since, Chief Justice Ruffin had his pocket picked of some money and a number of coupons, at the N. C. R. R. depot in this city. We learn that the coupons were found, a few days since, concealed in a cleft in the wall in one of the cells of the jail at Amelia C. H., Va. The pickpocket had been arrested in Virginia for some other crime, and had hidden the coupons as above stated. The coupons have been recovered by the owner.

"LAST NINETY DAYS."—We learn that the concluding number of the "Last Ninety Days of the War in North Carolina" has been sent forward, and will probably appear in the next issue of the Watchman. These serials have been read with great interest, not only in this State, but throughout the South, and have commanded, as they deserve, unmeasured praise.—We hope that they will at once be grouped together and published in book form. Such a publication will form the most valuable contribution yet made to current Southern literature.

By the way, we hope to have space, at no distant day, to transfer to our columns, from the Watchman, the exceedingly beautiful and touching article from the pen of the accomplished authoress of the "Ninety Days," giving an account of how the donation from the Baltimore Ladies' Relief Fund was distributed in the community in which she resides. We defy any one, not entirely callous, to read it with unmoistened eyes.

THE FOURTH IN NEWBERN.—A "D. Q. I." demonstration was one of the features of the celebration of the 4th. in Newbern. Among other burlesques was one of the Freedmen's Bureau, happily conceived. It consisted of an old bureau, mounted on a rickety wagon, with the drawers taken out, and three or four little negroes inserted.

GOLDSBORO' NEWS.—We are greatly pleased to be able to chronicle the re-appearance of this able and conservative journal. We hope that the encouragement and patronage which it may receive, and which it merits, will speedily repair the losses which its proprietors sustained by fire.

ANDREW MOWERY, a citizen of Salisbury, committed suicide on Wednesday last, by taking arsenic. He had made several attempts to take his own life.

A CAPITAL LETTER.—Governor WORTH has written an admirable letter to the President of the American Emigrant Aid Society, in which he displays in a most masterly manner the natural resources of North Carolina. The soil, climate, vegetable and mineral productions, manufactures, fisheries, land, improved and wild, population, public schools, and temper of the people of that State, are all discussed in the most conspicuous manner; and the publication of this document cannot fail to have a very happy effect in directing some part of the great tide of Immigration towards the Old North State. We think that Governor PIERPOINT might profit by the example.—Norfolk Day Book.

We clip the following from one of our exchange papers:

"General Charles Devens, after more than five years spent in the military service of his country, has returned to Worcester Mass., and will resume the practice of his profession."

What the practice of "his profession' is, our Northern exchange is painfully silent. We do know while in forcible possession of Dr. Wm. B. Pleasant's elegant residence in this city, "his profession" was that of a real estate agent, as he rented out the rooms in the Doctor's house, over his head, to negroes and "others." A nice "practice of his profession" truly!—Richmond Examiner.

The Baltimore Sun says:—"The facility with which divorces in general are obtained, and the numerous expedients resorted to for severing what no man should put asunder, would seem to indicate a lamentable degree of domestic infecility, which might be obviated by proper degrees of consideration before marriage or mutual forbearance afterwards."

A Defaulter to go Unwhipped of Justice—Convention of Railroad Presidents.

NEW YORK, July 6.

Attorney General Speed has directed the District Attorney to enter a nolle prosequi in the case against Fowler, the defaulting postmaster of this City. Under this Fowler will be permitted to return from Mexico, where he has been for some years.

A Convention of R. R. Presidents met at Philadelphia, on yesterday, and have memorialized Congress against the duty on iron and steel rails imposed by the new tariff.

More Destructive Fires.

Twenty-one buildings in Lawrenceburg, Indiana, were consumed by fire on yesterday, involving a loss of $100,000.

All the buildings on the north side of the street in Cherry Valley, N. Y., were burned last night. Loss from $75,000 to $100,000.

The Portland Conflagration.

PORTLAND, ME., July 5, 1866.

The details of the great fire show that it was terribly disastrous. All the newspaper and Insurance offices, banks and hotels, eight churches and a convent, schools and lawyers' offices, including valuable libraries, and nearly every prominent business house in the City, were burned, as well as a great number of private dwellings. The estimated number of lumber houses consumed is 2,000, and the loss exceeds $10,000,000.

The churches not burned are appropriated as hospitals, and committees are engaged in endeavoring to alleviate the distress of the sufferers.

The flames are still troublesome in different parts of the city. Nearly all the hose burated and several fire-engines were used up.

Important Decision Affecting Express Companies.

RICHMOND, July 5.

Judge Chambers has granted an injunction in the case of B. F. Ficklin, Superintendent of the National Express Co., against several Virginia Railroads, restraining them from carrying out their special transportation contracts with Adams' and the Southern Express Companies, which excluded all others.

The decision is considered highly important, as deciding the rights of Railroads and Express Companies. Its effect is to place the National Express Company on the same footing as those previously named.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 5, P. M.

The Committee of Conference on the tax bill recommend the fixing of the tax on Cotton at three cents per pound, and giving Railroads and Gas Companies the right to add to their rates the tax, until the 30th. April, 1867. They agree to leave the income tax unchanged,—the exemption of $600 being retained.

In the Senate, the bill to repeal the act retroceding Alexandria to Virginia was discussed and laid over; and the same disposition was made of the bill to pay loyal people in the South for supplies furnished.

The Senate refused, by a vote of 21 to 19, to transfer to the Secretary of War supervisory and other powers over all the Commissioners of Indian affairs, now exercised by the Secretary of the Interior.

Nothing of moment in the House, except the consideration of the Tariff bill.

Spaulding, of Ohio, gave notice that, after Tariff bill shall be disposed of, he would move to call up the resolutions reported by the committee on the Rousseau-Grimnell affair.

Forthcoming Address from Southern Representatives.

WASHINGTON, July 5.

It is understood that the Southern representatives will soon issue an address to the people of the South, recommending the selection of delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.—They regard it as highly important that the South shall co-operate in that movement,—especially as it is understood that it is only for the restoration of the South to the Union, and not for any party purpose

COLORADO.—Some of the Colorado people are dissatisfied with Governor Cummings, and are petitioning for a new Governor. President Johnson will probably recommend a general reading of the fable introducing the characters of Jupiter, King Log, and King Stork. The Coloradoans have just been denied a State government, and now they ask for a new Governor—they want something. Nursery traditions treasure up the following conversation between a seven-years' old child and her mother: "Mother, mother, mayn't I be married?" "No my love, you are too young to be married." "Well, then, mayn't I have a piece of bread and butter?" Colorado is too young to be wedded to the Union, but she must have something as a compensation.

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace, Esq., President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, [Aug. 30, 1865,] says: "It has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be, it caused me, long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintances, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute."

For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $3 per dozen. Address,

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box of one of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases. Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Scrofulous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as it is has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood and are often soon cured by this Extract of Sarsaparilla.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs DeROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus, Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars ($5) per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point.

DeROSSET & CO.
